

Conditions of entry – Yarra Libraries

Title	Conditions of Entry – Yarra Libraries
Responsible officer	Library Service Coordinators
Review date	February 2026
Human Rights compatibility	Yarra Libraries actively supports the substantive rights outlined in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Vic.) , notably those of relevance to the role and function of public libraries including freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief, freedom of expression, taking part in public life and cultural rights.

Purpose

The conditions of entry define acceptable conduct and behaviour of visitors to Yarra Libraries, ensuring we provide a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.

Scope

These conditions of entry apply to all Yarra Libraries premises, including the immediate vicinity of each library building.

Conditions of Entry

All visitors to the library or immediate surrounds must:

1. conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner to staff and other visitors,
2. wear reasonable attire including footwear and a shirt,
3. present any container or bag for inspection on the request of an Authorised Staff Member,
4. follow all reasonable requests from Authorised Staff Members to modify disruptive or unsafe behaviour,
5. leave the library if instructed by an Authorised Staff Member,
6. only enter during opening hours unless otherwise authorised.

Visitors must not:

7. cause discomfort, inconvenience, harm or pose a risk to staff or other visitors,
8. use abusive or discriminatory language,
9. consume alcohol, illicit drugs or misuse substances,
10. eat or drink near computers, photocopiers, and other library equipment,
11. smoke or vape inside the library or within 4 metres of any entrance,
12. deface, damage or interfere with library property (or items in the care of the library),
13. conduct any form of gambling,
14. leave personal belongings unattended,
15. broadcast offensive material (as defined by the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act 1995) on the library's public computers, equipment or personal devices,
16. take photographs or videos without permission from an Authorised Staff Member,
17. bring a dog or animal inside the library (including the foyer or within 2 metres of a library entrance) except for registered assistance or companion animals,
18. leave children under the age of 12 unattended for any length of time,
19. distribute or display handbills, advertisements, petitions or other commercial notices without permission from an Authorised Staff Member.

Any library visitor that observes or has knowledge that a child or young person is, or is at risk of, being abused or harmed at a library service, program, event or facility must report it to an Authorised Staff Member immediately. Where the child or young person is in immediate danger, they must call Victoria Police on Triple Zero (000) without delay.

Enforcement

Failure to comply with any reasonable direction by an Authorised Staff Member to rectify a breach of these conditions may result in a suspension of library membership, a ban on accessing library spaces and services, and/or referral to the police for further action.
